From The Counselor's Office

Have you received any scholarships yet? If you have been filling out applications, you should soon start receiving notifications of any you have received. Please remember to turn those award notices in to me so that we can include them on your list of recognitions at the awards ceremony in May.

The Levelland Masonic Lodge scholarship application is now open. The applicant pool is local and much smaller, which increases your chances of receiving this scholarship. Pick up an application in the counselor's office today!
